

HEALTH CAREERS EXPO

Tuesday, April 2, 2024 | 6-7:30 p.m. | Wortmann Ballroom

Are you interested in pursuing a career that contributes to others' health and well-being? If you are, you are a member of the "Health Careers World," because this "World" includes not only doctors and nurses and veterinarians (and other "clinicians") but also people such as health care administrators, medical communications officers, art therapists, and ethicists (along with so many more)! Are you wondering what you need to do to pursue such careers? Come to the 2024 Health Careers Expo and learn more!

Participants include:

Carilion Clinic

Emory & Henry (PA, PT, and OT programs)

LewisGale

Mary Baldwin University (PA, PT, and OT programs)

Radford University-Carilion (PA, PT, OT, Public Health, Communication Sciences, Speech-Language Pathology, and Social Work programs)

University of Lynchburg (PT program)

Via School of Osteopathic Medicine

Virginia-Maryland College of Veterinary Medicine

Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine

Registration is requested but not required. Come and go as you please!
The expo has been approved for Biology Department seminar credit and MCSP Conversation Series credit.

The Business & Economics Department, Chemistry Department, Fine Arts Department, Public Affairs Department, Religion and Philosophy Department and Sociology & Public Health Department support this event and encourage our students with aspirations for health careers to attend.
